

Financing and Economic Development for Small Businesses and Lenders

PRESENTED BY

PG&E and CSU Monterey Bay Small Business Development Center (CSUMB SBDC)

Register now to attend a complimentary event that will provide powerful tools and information to help generate small business energy savings and promote economic development in the Salinas Valley.

Lenders:

Come find out how, as an SBA certified lender, you can benefit from the Energy Efficiency Market in your area.

Local Economic Development Executives/Community Leaders and Local Government Representatives:

Learn about how your stakeholders and constituents and the community can benefit from energy savings.

Business Owners:

Besides zero interest loans from PG&E, the CSUMB SBDC has resources to help guide you in reducing your costs and growing your business. Find out how you can take advantage of their free services sponsored by the SBA and local communities.

Our speakers and panel of experts include financing specialists from PG&E, the SBDC Associate Director and representatives from your community and local organizations. They will share information about accessing capital for projects, and resources that can create jobs and expand businesses.
